to the authorities of the college. And about the time that that editorial was being written, the former associate of Rabbi Franklin, and the present incumbent of a middle-west congregation, was sending out resolutions to alumni of the college, asking them to endorse Dr. Morganstern for the successorship to Dr. Kohler. Is there any connection between the attack on us and the letters of Rabbi Franklin's recent associate? For our part, we prefer "open diplomacy" to locked closet politics. The Hebrew Union College belongs to no man or set of men—it belongs to every member of every congregation that holds a membership in the Union. Let us have free discussion of the important matters in Judaism, so that every Jew who is interested, or who may become interested, will know what is going on!

DETERMINATION OF PALESTINIAN MANDATE POSTPONED.

London: (Jewish News Service).—Negotiations regarding final decisions of current questions growing out of the British mandate over Mesopotamia and Palestine have been postponed to the next meeting of the League of Nations Council which is scheduled to take place in April.

The decision was reached on motion of Mr. Balfour, who explained the reason for it by the fact that Winston Churchill, the new minister of the colonies, in whose department the mandatory territories have been placed, was little acquainted with the duties of his new office and desired time to study the mandate question.

The members of the League agreed to Mr. Balfour's motion, provided France interposed no objection. France expressed her willingness to postpone the settlement of mandate questions until April.

ORTHODOX RABBIS TO AID MENDEL BEILISS.

New York: (By Jewish News Service).—The convention of Orthodox rabbis which was in session here three days, closed here last night with a banquet at the Broadway Central Hotel. Among the resolutions adopted at the Convention was one calling for immediate aid for the family of Mendel Beiliss, the victim of a ritual murder trial, who is now in America. New officers were elected.

"MORNING POST" DEMANDS EXPLANATION OF MOND.

London: (Jewish News Service).—"Morning Post," in a leading article assails Sir Alfred Mond and demands from him an explanation whether he went to Palestine as a Jew or as a British cabinet minister and whether he represented in Palestine Jewish or British interests.

PALESTINIAN MANDATE DEPENDING ON BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

London: (Jewish News Service).—Sir Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the House of Commons, during a debate in Parliament on the question of mandates and their application, declared that it will be parliament that would have the final say in the matter of the disposition of the mandates assumed by Great Britain under the peace treaty.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Lovich entertained at the Talmud Torah rooms and Augdath Jacob Synagogue in honor of their son, Sanders, with a dinner and refreshments for those attending at the morning services Saturday, Mar. 19th. The Talmud Torah children served cold drinks and fancy cakes. Mrs. Lovich was assisted by her sister, Mrs. J. A. Hayman and Mrs. H. P. Hayman. Many enjoyed a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lovich entertained at home on West Avenue Sunday, March 20th from four to six o'clock in honor of their son, Sanders bar-Mitzah. The colors of pink and white were seen throughout the living and dining room where the countless American beauty roses and beautiful ferns were used as decorations. On the dining table there was beautiful cluny cloth and in the middle was a large basket of pink sweet peas and ascended from the top were seen silver butterflies. Angel and devil food cakes and cherry ice cream were served. The following girls assisted in serving the guests: Sadie Berkman, Ida Rosenberg, Sadie Kaplan, Jeannette Marks and Blooma Kaplan. Sanders received many beautiful gifts from relatives and friends and good wishes.
